

Nicholas Trevisan

Nicholas is an Urban Forestry Supervisor with the City of Toronto, where he implements City tree by-laws and forestry programs. Nicholas worked previously as a consultant specializing in natural environment impact assessment, policy review, species at risk, ecological restoration and arboriculture. He received an Honours Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Ecology from the University of Guelph and a Master's degree in Sustainable Environmental Management from the University of Saskatchewan.

Nicholas grew up on the moraine and was inspired by both the land and residents who worked to conserve it. He hopes to help continue this legacy of conservation through his work with the talented staff and volunteers of the Trust. In his spare time, Nicholas enjoys exploring the moraine, camping, running, hockey and spending time with family and friends. Nick is a member, and former Chair of the Land and Stewardship Committee and has been a member of the Board since 2015.

Jane Garthson

Jane has been providing leadership services to Canadian not-for-profits and governments since 1992, after holding senior management roles in the Ontario government. After serving in three Interim CEO/Executive Director roles, she now acts as a Peer Mentor to new Interim Executives as well as new board chairs and executive directors. She continues to consult in nonprofit governance, particularly board decision-making and board and CEO succession planning.

Long ago, Jane designed and delivered strategic planning workshops for the Ontario Land Trust Alliance and attended the first Standards and Practices training in Canada. She has served and supported other environmental organizations and deeply appreciates the importance of the Moraine in preserving our ecosystem, protecting species at risk and mitigating the effects of climate change.

Among other volunteer roles, Jane has served as Commissioner of the former Ontario Racing Commission, chair of the Ethics Practitioners Association of Canada and Treasurer of the Canadian Therapeutic Riding Association. She grew up with strong rural ties and now rides her Quarter Horse near the Moraine. She lives in North York with two cats and a pesticide-free edibles garden. Both Jane and her husband are amateur singer-songwriters and fantasy readers. Jane currently serves as Secretary and Chair of the Governance Committee and has been on the board since 2017.
